

Special Wine Tasting Event – Wines from around the World

PTA Social Night Out - be a part of a fun, relaxing yet informative evening with leading wine expert Brent Rogers. Partake in blind tastings of various international and NZ wines then learn and discuss about the wines. Various prizes are available to be won on the night. Brent guarantees everyone will go away a little more informed of the wine world.

Brent has 40 years experience in the industry including 20 years at Nobilo's and running some of the best Restaurants and wine stores in New Zealand. He's travelled extensively to some of the best wine regions of the world and been personal guests of some of the leading champagne houses and brands from France, Australia, Spain, Portugal, America Canada and wine regions of New Zealand. Seven years ago he bought The Jolly Farmer Wholesale in Drury and is now catering and advising on wines for some of our leading politicians, international celebrities, leading Restaurants and of course wine lovers of Drury and the wider area.

Will be held on Friday 29th September (last day of term) in the Ramarama School Library, starting 7pm and finishing about 9pm.

Cost of attending $30 per person and includes something to nibble on between tastings to clear the palate. Complimentary supervised childcare is available if required (movie/games/supper in another classroom).

Numbers are limited so RSVP now for a guaranteed place. If you wish to attend, you must return the slip below along with payment to the school office no later than Wednesday 27th September. Please ensure your RSVP slip and money are inside a sealed envelope or zip-lock bag.

Insufficient numbers will result in cancellation of the event and a full refund of any money paid. Further information, contact PTA Chairman Peter Thornley (021 678 500)
